The screenshot shows a Mozilla Firefox browser window at the URL <http://beta.itslearning.com>. The user is logged in as Stig Wilhelmsen. The interface displays a sidebar with a tree view for 'Chemistry' containing 'Status and follow-up', 'Persons', 'Groups', 'Settings', and 'Trashcan'. The main content area shows a dialog titled 'Select which persons to include in learning objective report'.

1 Select persons to include in report

Agenda

- » Beter overzicht in de agenda
- » Betere weergave van de agenda

The image displays two screenshots of the 'it's learning' web application interface, demonstrating improvements in the agenda view.

The 'Calendar settings' page allows users to configure the agenda view. It includes the following options:

- Week and month view: Radio buttons for 'Show category' (selected) and 'Show beginning of activity text'.
- Description for course and project activities: Radio buttons for 'Show category' (selected) and 'Show beginning of activity text'.
- Description length: Radio buttons for 'Small (Initial 10 characters)' (selected), 'Medium (Initial 15 characters)', and 'Large (Initial 20 characters)'.
- Show starting time: A checked checkbox.

Buttons for 'Save', 'Cancel', and 'Help' are at the bottom. A note states: "Note! An activity will use the beginning of activity text as description if categorised as 'Personal'."

The 'Calendar' view shows a weekly grid for January 31, 2006. The grid displays activities for each day of the week. A yellow activity block is visible on Tuesday at 09:00, labeled '09:00 Chemistry'.

Buttons for 'Add activity' and 'Add period activity' are at the top. A 'Calendar settings' link is in the top right corner. A note at the bottom states: "You can adjust the information about an activity by adjusting the 'Week and month view' parameters."
